Kathryn Rowzee

CSIT-425-01

Homework 2

Divide work into 2 sprints

The first sprint of this assignment will consist of making a program that is able to read two arrays of the same size and add them together. The second sprint would be to add the functionality of allowing the program to work with different size arrays.